ADELE JOHNSON AND DAUGHTER MARY

The Adele Johnson's Dancing School has been led to heights of success and praise such as, "Best on Long Island" and "Showmanship of the Highest Quality" by the renowned Adele Johnson and Daughter.

Adele Johnson has been an important vehicle of communication both to her people and the community. In making a career of the fine art of dancing for over 27 years, Mrs. Johnson has helped many young, talented persons find themselves through the dance world. Having had her own dance school for over a decade, Mrs. Johnson feels that she is now taking her rightful place in society by devoting all her efforts to instruction, guidance, culture and bettering the young people of today in the community. The united thought of the school is to use the inborn talent inherited through our ancestors as a communitive to reach all throughout the land, promoting peace through understanding. This inborn talent is reflected in the skillful, deliberate movements of her students.
